

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

The Cambria Guards Called Out.

THEY ARE ORDERED TO CAMP WRIGHT.

THEIR DEPARTURE FROM OUR MIDST.

On last Friday, after a tedious and tiresome delay, the requisition for the "Cambria Guards" was received.

The requisition was accepted by the State authorities several weeks since; but the official command to report at camp was so tardy in arriving that very many were inclined to believe that they would never be ordered into service.

Recruiting was immediately begun, and in a short time the complement was obtained. The "good men and true" who stepped forth to the defence of our Country in this her hour of deadly peril have shown themselves to be indeed men and patriots—worthy to wear the name of freemen.

SENTIMENT OF OUR CITIZENS.

On Tuesday evening, a public meeting of our citizens was held in the Court House, to give expression to the universal sentiment of respect and esteem entertained for the Guards, and to bid them "God speed!"

DEPARTURE OF THE GUARDS.

Everything being in preparation, yesterday (Wednesday) morning, at about 5 o'clock, the Guards took their departure from our midst. They were conveyed to Wilmore by some of our citizens, where they took the Express train for Pittsburg.

HAVELOCKS, & C.

Prior to their departure, the Guards were presented by the ladies of Ebensburg with a large supply of Havelocks. These are a very useful article of head-gear, worn over the military cap, and so constructed as to shield the neck and head from the rays of the sun.

SITUATION OF CAMP WRIGHT.

Camp Wright is situated at Hulton Station, on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, about ten miles from Pittsburg. It lies directly on the bank of the Allegheny river, which will afford the men every facility for bathing in pure water—a sanitary measure which cannot fail to have a most beneficial effect on their health.

on the ground, and altogether the location is said to be admirably suited to meet the requirements of a military camp.

The annexed Farewell to the soldiers is from the pen of a lady. It breathes the true spirit of patriotism:

To the "Cambria Guards."

Farewell! proud soldiers, true and brave! Friends check the tear, and hush the "No!" Or take them back, and with a smile Give you their blessing—bid you go.

But they will pass, the snow-white clouds, That chase each other o'er the sky; The flowers that open, bloom, and fade, Will mark them surely creeping by.

Go forth to-day, assured that we Shall wait and watch thy brave career; Be proud of every laurel won, For every fall a father's tear.

THE BURGLARY LAST WEEK.

In our last issue we made brief mention of an attempt made to rob the premises of Mr. David Pryce, an old and highly respected farmer residing about a mile from town. We have since received fuller particulars, from which it appears that a terrible fight, resulting in the complete overthrow of the midnight despoiler, was enacted.

FOR THE DOG DAYS.

The hotels at Cresson, this county, have been leased for a term of five years by G. W. Mullin, formerly of the St. Lawrence Hotel, Philadelphia. They will be opened for the reception of visitors on the 20th inst.

MAN KILLED.

An elderly gentleman named Henry Amsbaugh, residing four miles east of Johnstown, was killed on Wednesday evening of last week by being run over by the Express train east on the Penna. Railroad.

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.

One day last week, a soldier going eastward with his company on the Penna. Railroad, had his arm fractured at Wilmore station by its coming in contact with a projecting stick of wood while the cars were in motion.

CHANGED.

The schedule of the Pennsylvania Railroad was changed on Monday last. Both mails are now carried in the morning, and are due here at 12 o'clock, M.

THE FOURTH OF JULY.—Well, friends and fellow citizens, about the "glorious Fourth"—are we to have a celebration, or are we not? Will we honor the anniversary of American Independence with a rousing demonstration of some sort or other, or will we permit the dear old day to pass by unweleomed and unhonored?

We hope that the former of these propositions will be adopted, but appearances do not seem to indicate that our hopes are likely to be fulfilled. Our citizens, who are generally exceedingly patriotic, appear apathetic on this subject.

It is almost every town and village in Pennsylvania—and in fact in every State in which loyalty to the Stars and Stripes is a characteristic of the people—preparations are being made for a grand celebration of the occasion.

CRESSON STATION.

As a matter of interest to those travelers who prefer the "Pike" to the Plank as a highway to the railroad, we annex the time of the several passenger trains at Cresson station on and after Monday, June 10, 1861:

Table with 2 columns: Train Name and Time. Includes East-Express Train, Mail Train, West-Express Train, etc.
